DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a long, one-story-with-attic, frame building with a gable-front facade. There is a central door, with a small loading platform, and one, 6/6 window. There is an old, gas pump here. Attached to the east side of the building is a large, low shed-roof addition, with large, sliding doors to accomodate loading of feed, etc. Both sections have vertical siding and tin roofs.

Across the street are several, late-19th/early-20th Century, frame country homes that make up this (Bucklodge) community.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This is one of the few, remaining, old commercial buildings in the county. While it probably only dates from the early 20th Century, it is almost in a category by itself, in that it represents an important aspect of the local farming community.
